FORT BENNING – The National Infantry Museum will be open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and weekends from 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. during the holiday season.

The National Infantry Museum will be closed on Christmas Day and New Year's Day.

More than 200 years of history are on display at the museum, which houses thousands of artifacts reflecting the role the U.S. Army Infantry has played in the history of our nation.

Admission is free, and the museum is open to the public.

The National Infantry Museum is located in Bradley Hall on Baltzell Avenue, across from Sacrifice Field.

Access to the installation is controlled at vehicle checkpoints. All vehicles will be stopped and may be inspected. Drivers and adult passengers in the vehicle should be prepared to present identification.

For museum hours or more information, call 545-2958.
